- v) You breach any part of the policy.

The insurance contract will provide cover for treatment given during the current period of cover.

Period of Cover

Your plan is in force for the period of cover noted in your certificate of insurance subject to our rights of termination of cover. In the event a future agreement is reached between the policyholder and us, the policyholder will be bound by the terms and conditions of any new agreement agreed between the parties. The policyholder or insured person bears the responsibility to enter into any new agreement with us. We accept no liability for the failure of a policyholder to enter into a new agreement.

We will make no contribution to any treatment costs, claim or other losses if any such detriment is fully or partly recovered or recoverable by any other such means of redress referred to within this section.

a higher amount, we shall pay the amount not covered by them subject to the terms, conditions, exclusions and warranties of this policy.

We are under no obligation to pay or adjudicate any claim under this policy unless and until the eligibility and applicability of any other insurance, claim or means of redress referred to within this section has been established and confirmed.

Change of Risk

The policyholder or insured person must inform us as soon as reasonably possible of any material changes that affects information given in connection with the application for cover under this policy. We reserve the right to alter the policy terms or cancel cover for an insured person following a change of risk.

Declaration of Material Facts

All material facts that may affect our assessment and consideration of an application or claim should be declared at the earliest opportunity by the policyholder. A fact, whether disclosed by the policyholder or identified by us, is considered material if it would influence the assessment of risk attributable to the policy, or liability to the Insurer. Such examples include but are not limited to pre-existing health conditions, medical records, hazardous activities or being exposed to heightened risks over and above routine day-to-day dangers.

Failure to accurately and promptly provide fair and reasonable representation of facts may invalidate your cover, or lead to the cancellation of your policy and/or rejection of claims. If you are in doubt whether a fact is material then it should be disclosed.

Claim Adjudication

All claims must be submitted in full as soon as is reasonably practical and no later than 21 days after the event which causes the claim. Failure to do so may result in our rejection of the claim or may result in you not receiving the full amount claimed for. If we think that the evidence of the claim submission and the information provided is incomplete, then you will be informed of the required supplementary information.

The onus of proving the eligibility of any claim under this policy rests with the policyholder. No claim shall be eligible unless and until sufficient evidence is disclosed to facilitate the comprehensive adjudication of the claim and to establish eligibility. The absence of specific evidence or information to establish the ineligibility of a claim shall not automatically render a claim eligible.

The policyholder and any members must fully comply with any enquiry into the circumstances of the claim, and in establishing whether any other insurance, claim or means of redress is applicable.

We reserve the right to reject any claim where the policyholder or member fails to assist with such enquiries, fails to undertake endeavours to seek recovery from other such means of redress, or fails to act in good faith when establishing the existence of, or during the course of any investigation into the extent of any other means of redress.

Where any underlying cause and/or diagnosis is unknown or has not been established, we reserve the right to delay or pause the adjudication of a claim until such time as the cause and/or diagnosis is known and ratified by us.

We will not pay any interest on any amount payable under this policy, nor will we pay for consequential financial losses, expenses, damages or compensation relating to a claim, the claims process or any alleged detriment arising through the adjudication, or adjudication process, of any claim.

If any representation, claim, or disclosure made under this policy is in any respect fraudulent, unfounded, or not made in good faith, all benefits paid and/or payable in relation to any claim shall be forfeited and recoverable. In addition, all cover in respect of the insured person(s) may be cancelled void from the Start Date. We reserve the right to disclose information to any third party, including any legal, regulatory, or other relevant authority.

Applicable Law

The law applicable to this policy shall be construed exclusively according to the laws of Nevis.

Right to Recover

This policy constitutes an agreement between Beyond and the member to provide insurance coverage for the period of cover. Beyond agrees to provide insurance coverage in accordance with the terms, conditions, definitions, and exclusions outlined within this brochure and the certificate of insurance. The member agrees to make all premium payments in full and in accordance with the frequency outlined within the certificate of insurance.

In the event of any non-payment of the insurance premium, Beyond reserves the right to seek recovery of any premium owed during any current or previous period of coverage.

It is your responsibility to ensure any premium payments are received by Beyond on or before their due date. We are under no obligation to provide warnings of any missed payments, and in the event of such non-payment of premium shall be entitled to lapse the policy without further recourse to you.

In the event a member's policy is cancelled or lapses due to non-payment of premium and the member subsequently commences a new policy with Beyond, any outstanding premium payment from a previous policy shall be considered an outstanding debt owed to us. As creditor, we reserve the right to withhold or apportion payment of any future claims made under the member's existing policy until any such debt is settled.

Reimbursement

The primary purpose of this policy is to ensure that the reimbursement of eligible costs are paid to the member.

Where a guarantee of payment has not been issued by us, this plan only provides reimbursements for eligible costs paid by the insured person.

The obligation to solicit, receive, undergo or otherwise have any form of treatment relating to any medical requirement shall remain the sole responsibility of the insured member.

The issue of a guarantee of payment shall not be a determining factor as to whether an insured member proceeds with any required or intended treatment, and we shall bear no responsibility or liability for the failure of the member to proceed with such treatment.

Any guarantee of payment is at the discretion of the insurer, and will only be issued where all terms, conditions, exclusions and warranties of the Beyond Travel Insurance plan have been satisfied and eligibility of the claim is established.

Subrogation

This section shall apply in the event that any payment has been made by us in accordance with this policy. We remain under no obligation to pay or adjudicate any claim under this policy unless and until the eligibility and applicability of any other insurance, claim or means of redress referred to within this section has been established and confirmed.

In the event any such payment has been made by us, the policy shall be subrogated to all rights of recovery that insured persons have against any other party with respect to any payment made by that party to insured persons due to any injury, illness or medical condition insured persons sustain to the full extent of the benefits provided or to be provided by the policy.

If insured persons receive any payment from any other party or from any other insurance cover as a result of an injury, illness or medical condition, we have the right to recover from, and be reimbursed by them, for all amounts we have paid or may elect to pay as a result of that injury, illness or medical condition, from such payment, up to and including the full amount received.

We shall be entitled to full reimbursement from any other party's payments, even if such payment will result in a recovery that is insufficient to fully compensate the insured person in part or in whole for the damages sustained.

Insured persons are required to fully cooperate with us in our efforts to recover any payments made including any legal proceedings that we may conduct and proceed with on their behalf at our sole discretion. Insured persons are required to notify us immediately, and in any event, within 30 days of the date when any notice is given to any party, including an insurance company or lawyer, of the insured person's intention to pursue or investigate a claim to recover damages or obtain compensation due to injury, illness or medical condition sustained by the insured person.

Other than with our written consent, insured persons have no entitlement to admit liability for any eventuality or give promise of any undertaking that is binding upon them. In the event that any claim or dispute is made in respect of this subrogation or any part thereof, including, but not limited to, any right of recovery provision which is ambiguous or questions arise concerning the meaning or intent of any of its terms, we shall for the avoidance of doubt have the sole authority and discretion to resolve all disputes regarding the interpretation of this provision.

Membership Applications

We maintain the right to ask you to provide proof of age and/or a declaration of health of any person included in your application. We reserve the right to apply additional options, exclusions or premium increases to reflect any circumstances the insured person advises in their application form or declares to us as a material fact.

You must tell us if you know about anything which may affect our decision to accept your insurance.

Medical Evaluation and Investigation

We reserve the right to request further tests and/or evaluation.

You must give us all the information needed to deal with any claim as determined by us and you will be responsible for the costs involved in doing so.

All information needed to deal with any claim must be written in English. You will be responsible for any costs involved in translating any documents.

You must give us permission to obtain any medical reports or records needed from any medical practitioner who has treated any insured person.

You must attend and engage in any examinations, investigations, or appointments as determined necessary by us. Any failure to attend or engage in such appointment, failure to provide or delays in the provision of any requested information may invalidate your claim.

If an insured person dies, we have the right to ask for a post mortem examination.

Waiver

Any deviation from the specific terms, conditions, exclusions and warranties of the policy by us at any time shall not constitute a waiver of our right to implement, rely or insist upon compliance with such provisions at any other time. This includes but is not limited to the payment of premiums or benefits. This shall apply irrespective of the context of any such waiver of any right under the policy, including repeat circumstances.

Our Right of Cancellation

We may at any time terminate a member's cover if he/she or the policyholder has at any time:

- i) Misled us by misstatement;
- ii) Claimed benefits for any purpose other than as are provided for under this policy;

- iii) Agreed to any attempt by a third party to obtain an unreasonable pecuniary advantage to our detriment; or
- iv) Otherwise failed to observe the terms and conditions of this policy or failed to act with good faith.

Liability

Our liability shall cease immediately, and such cessation shall apply retroactively upon the cessation of the policy for whatever reason, including without limitation the natural expiry of the policy or termination of the policy.

Minimising Loss

How To Make A Claim

Beyond has appointed an independent claims adjudication company to process any claims fairly and efficiently. The claims team can ensure that any claims submitted during your period of cover receive a sensible and customer-focused service experience.

We understand that during an emergency, you may not be in a position to notify us prior to your attendance at an emergency room.

You must notify Beyond as soon as it is possible so that we can arrange for eligible costs to be settled directly where possible, or reimbursed to you.

You must submit your fully completed claim form within 21 days of the incident which causes the claim. You must also obtain and supply copies of all medical records, test results, itemised invoice(s), and receipt(s) for your medical costs by email to: claims@beyond-ti.com

Please be advised that medical facilities are different, and your ability to obtain the necessary information relating to your claim may be diminished once you have returned to your home country. You must make all efforts to obtain the information and documents relating to your claim whilst in the country where you are treated, follow the instructions on the claim form, particularly in relation to any accident, and submit the information required by Beyond to assess your claim.

Our dedicated team specialise in supporting you during such situations, and their contact information for general enquiries and claims services can be found in the contact section of this document.

All claims will be adjudicated subject to the terms, conditions, definitions, exclusions and warranties of this policy, and in particular the Claims Adjudication section of this brochure.
